

restore.nurture.grow.respect

Founded in 2015 as the young professionals' arm of Friends of Birch State Park, RNGR (restore.nurture.grow.respect) is intended to help restore Hugh Taylor Birch State Park, nurture it for current and future generations, grow community support and engagement, and promote respect for the legacy Hugh Taylor Birch left to the residents and visitors of Fort Lauderdale.

"The Friends board of directors president Jim Ellis, Hugh Taylor Birch State Park manager David Dearth and I are thrilled that we have a new, enthusiastic young professionals group who will attract new fans and volunteers for Birch Park," said Gale Butler, executive director of Friends of Birch State Park. "RNGRs' chair Sara Shake and founding members Katie Dressler and Christi Rice have already planned a volunteer project to clean up our 45 acres of mangroves via paddle board, kayak and canoe."

For more information or to become a RNGR member, visit www.facebook.com/mgrfl.

SOCIETY BROWARD • BR

Special Marketing Section

$100 for 100 Shopping Spree

Steve Dingle, left, Susan Connor, Gary Joyal and Scott Dingle

Volunteers from P & H Interiors raised funds for local children in need as sponsors and supporters of the "$100 for 100" charity event at Dick's Sporting Goods in Coral Springs.

"For the fifth year in a row, Santa's helpers from P&H Interiors joined Joyal Capital Management Foundation to provide $100 gift cards to Dick's Sporting Goods for 100 nominated children, age 5 to 18, to shop for gifts for themselves or their families," said Susan Connor, president of the Coral Springs-based design firm.

Known for their commitment to clients and for treating them like family, the team at P&H Interiors has created award-winning homes and commercial spaces for more than two decades. The firm provides custom design to the full spectrum of residential homes, commercial spaces and builder models. Other sponsors of the event for 2015 included Tripp Scott Attorneys at Law and SRD Building Corp.

Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital

Bill Feinberg, left, and David Feinberg

Allied Kitchen & Bath recently donated more than 200 toys to children seeking treatment at Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital.

Allied Kitchen & Bath president Bill Feinberg and facilities manager David Feinberg visited the hospital and met with staff to present them with the toys. The welcomed gifts came just in time for Christmas, bringing cheer to the hospital's young patients unable to spend the holidays at home.

This donation is a continuation of Allied Kitchen & Bath's philanthropic efforts in the community.

Sun Sentinel Thursday, January 21, 2016

SOCIETY BROWARD 15